

Musk Have

A simple raw essence of musk, brought into focus by an overlay of iris and pink berries, provides the warmth and intimacy a scent needs to get you through the colder months. For Him Eau de Parfum Intense, $79, Narciso Rodriguez

MUST HAVE

SHELF HELP
NEW PRODUCTS FOR HIM

Hair Raising

You may not want seductive vampire hair, but micro-grip technology gives you enough hold to maintain your look for hours. Light, non-sticky and non-flaking. InPlay Spiking Putty, $8, göt2b

Sharpest Tool in the Shed

Strip away the fine residues of hair, skin and soap that make razor blades dull and extend the life of an individual blade up to 150 shaves. Razor blade sharpener, $25, Razorpit

Pore Boy

J.R. Watkins applies its 141 years of experience to your face, reducing fine lines and wrinkles and fighting redness with ground apricot seeds, willow bark extracts and natural seaweed. Gentle Pore Scrub, $13, J.R. Watkins Natural Apothecary

As Seen on TV

Want your armpit to smell of the rarefied air at the top of the Matterhorn? Old Spice has you covered. Fresh Collection Anti-Perspirant & Deodorant, $5, Old Spice

EDITOR'S CHOICE

1 ShAvatar

In the interest of making your shave as simple as possible, Philips has designed its smartest electric razor ever, the SensoTouch 3D. Shave wet or dry, with or without shaving cream and never worry about nicks as 3-D contouring and a flexing, tilting and pivoting head effortlessly adjust to dips, bumps, curves and any other character your face offers up.

SensoTouch 3D Shaver, from $230, Philips

2 Force Field

Biotherm's newest fragrance is shaped by the interplay of opposing elements: modern and classical, dynamic and stable, soft and unyielding. An invigorating initial gleam of citrus gently floats into deep, masculine notes of cedar and Haitian vetiver, carried by a bracing spring water breeze infused with neroli, spicy cardamom and an artistic note of absinthe. —Evan Rosser

Eau de Toilette, $76 for 100 mL bottle, Force Biotherm Homme

PHOTOGRAPHY: SUPERSTOCK/GETTY IMAGES (SHOP)